

Brilliant Tutorials turns a new page with Career Launcher

The Economic Times | November 22, 2011

NEW DELHI: Brilliant Tutorials, the Chennai based IIT-JEE coaching giant that was facing closure in north India a few weeks ago, has found a saviour in alumnus and new-age rival Satya Narayanan R, the founder of Career Launcher.

Career Launcher, or CL Educate, will run the brick-and-mortar business of Brilliant Tutorials in north and east India, which account for 20% of the institute's 40,000-odd students, from January.
